James Attacks Cities' Rights To Gas Funds

Sees 'Chaos" if Road Money Is Taken From County

Predicting eventual "chaos" of the county road system if state gasoline tax funds are diverted to use on city streets, County Engineer James S. James Monday attacked before the supervisors the proposal that $41,000 of gas taxes be credited to the peninsula cities.

The $41,000, which the supervisors recently agreed to give the cities, was half of the $82,000 fund requested.

Request for copies of the report was made by the board and comments were being withheld until it had been perused.

James declared that the cities already were receiving $75,971 from the state board of public works, representing one-quarter of one cent of state gasoline taxes.

Exceeding County's Share

If the $41,000 fund is finally approved and $19,500 additional for the Woodside road and Mission street widening, Daly City, are granted, the cities would receive $135,500 from county and state sources, James said.

The county would have left $103,500 out of its portion of the gas tax, he said. The cities, James said, would be given $32,000 more than the county.

"The request of the cities amounts to the unjust proposal that the citizens of our unincorporated villages, our farm communities and recreational areas shall pay for the upkeep of city streets," James declared.

Proposes $20,000 Limit

James predicted that the state gasoline tax "sooner or later would become unpopular and would be repealed" if the diversion to cities is allowed.

The $75,000 coming from the state should be sufficient to maintain the state highways within the cities, James said, while the cities themselves, he held, should maintain city streets of only local importance.

James estimated that not more than $20,000 ought to go to the cities. Any sum over that amount would be "unjust to the unincorported areas," he said.

"The cities contend that they pay 80 per cent of the total gasoline tax," James said. "This is admitted, but it is also true that 86 per cent of the traffic on county highways is by city cars. James said that the travel by city automobiles is 10,693 miles per day compared to 1,697 by rural cars.

"City cars are therefore responsible for 86 per cent of the wear and tear on the road system and they are now paying only a just proportion of the costs of maintaining the county roads," he said.

James held that if the county highway system is to be enlarged to take in city streets the same treatment should be accorded to rural roads.

Heavy Taxes Forseen

This, James said, would mean placing 1,000 miles into the road system at a cost of $400,000 per year. Heavy taxes would be necessary, he said, to maintain such a system as the gasoline taxes are inadequate.

James declared that the first year's operation under the centralized control provided by the charter "reduced costs as expected." He said:

"The road department not only got along without any local road taxes, but it contributed some $65,000 toward the work relief program, paid $25,000 of obligations of the year before, and spent $80,000 less than in the prior year.

"The road system can be maintained this year without local taxes; it can contribute liberally toward materials cost for the work relief program; it can spend a maximum of $20,000 on county roads within city limits—all provided there are no diversions of the revenues we receive from motor vehicle fuel and license taxes.

"If diversions are permitted they must be replaced this year or next by local taxes. Each dollar of neglect this year in necessary maintenance and repairs on county roads will cost two dollars next year."

Policeman's Wife Loses Black Purse

Police Chief C. L. Collins today requested that anyone finding a black patent leather coin purse, believed to have been lost last night at a local theatre, turn it in to the police station. The purse was lost by Mrs. Michael Desmond, wife of a San Francisco officer attached to the police chief's office there.

PORT BONDS DESERVE WIDE PUBLIC BACKING

[EDITORIAL]

In the wise decision of the port commission to submit a bond issue of approximately $450,000 to the voters for development of the projected San Mateo County Harbor at Redwood City there is provided the sole chance for the peninsula to rid itself of industrial blight. The decision of every right-minded citizen of San Mateo county should be for this forward step! We thank Commissioners Shaw, Keyston and Beeger for giving us the right to vote upon this vital project.

There ought to be almost no opposition to the harbor bonds for their support will not work a hardship on the taxpayer. Development of Port San Mateo County actually is the answer to the demand that the tax burden be lightened. The port, once it becomes an actuality, will increase land values, bring an influx of industries, fill up the barren tide flats with activity, and provide jobs and payrolls for the unemployed.

Only by making the vast bayshore lands valuable can the little homes escape the crushing tax load that increases with more and more persons leaning upon the government for their support or looking to it for the employment that private industry fails to give.

Cost of completing the harbor is estimated at $635,000. The United States will assist to the extent of providing $185,000. If and when the harbor is an actuality, the federal government will remove the San Bruno Shoals at its own expense. This will cost $107,000. It also will provide $16,500 annual maintenance of the Redwood harbor channel. Altogether this makes $292,000 federal aid which the peninsula can secure, plus the $16,500 annual maintenance.

San Mateo county will use the $450,000 bonds in purchasing the land, providing $94,000 for dredging to match the government's half, and in creating the shore facilities, i. e., the wharves, warehouses, spur tracks, highways, water system, fire protection.

The government will purchase $312,000 of the bonds at 4 per cent interest and will give the district 15 years in which to repay the amount. The balance of the bonds covering dredging and land acquisition will be sold separately.

Based upon conservative tonnage, the San Mateo County Port will be self-supporting and will provide an annual estimated surplus of $18,610. This assures that the harbor will not become a burden on the taxpayer and is his answer to jobs, payrolls and tax reduction.

HARBOR BOARD EXPLAINS CALL FOR VOTE ON BONDS

Why the decision to submit a bond issue to the public for development of the San Mateo county harbor at Redwood City was reached by the commission last night is explained in the following statement signed by Commissioners Percy Shaw, chairman; S. A. Keyston, secretary, and Henry Beeger:

At the time the harbor district was voted in June, 1933, federal aid was being offered under the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works for the development of worthy projects. With a view of obtaining federal aid towards the development of the 25 miles of waterfront in San Mateo county, the district was formed. The first unit of development was to be at Redwood creek, owing to the small cost involved in establishing a harbor there, together with the fact that there is available sufficient tonnage from San Mateo, Santa Clara and surrounding counties to more than pay the cost of the operations of a harbor there.

Immediately after creation of the district, application was filed with the federal administrator for funds to develop this unit of the San Mateo county harbor. Two methods of obtaining funds were provided:

1. Grants secured by the issuing of bonds voted by the county or district requesting the loan.

2. Grants under lease which contemplated the taking over of the facilities, after completed, by the government and operating on a lease basis.

The application for funds for the development of the first unit of the San Mateo county harbor was filed under the second method as this did not involve voting of bonds.

Plans Were Changed

In view of the heavy demands for funds, the federal administration restricted all loans to the first basis and rejected the application of the district for funds under the lease basis, offering the district as disclosed by telegram received July 6th from the assistant general counsellor, a cash grant of $91,000 and a loan of $312,000 through the purchase of 4 per cent bonds extending over a period of 15 years, this money to be used for the completion of all shore facilities, which include wharf, transit shed, spur tracks, water supply and fire protection, highways and parking space, dikes and breakwater and the dredging of a berthing space, funds of the federal administration being restricted to this purpose.

Prior to the voting of the harbor district and the creation of the harbor commissioners, active work had been carried on to secure government recognition of the development of harbor facilities in San Mateo county, by the Citizens' Harbor Development Committee of Redwood City, and through the efforts of this committee, hearings were obtained before the district engineer of the war department and several small appropriations were obtained for the development of a channel at Redwood City, these appropriations up to June 30, 1932, approximating $67,800.

Propose 30-Foot Depth

Subsequent to this time and prior to the creation of the harbor district, an amended application was filed asking the federal government to improve the then existing channel by deepening to 30 feet, thereby providing sufficient depth for all commercial ships and placing the county in a position to obtain recognition from the steamship lines of Redwood harbor as a port-of-call, thereby giving to San Mateo county equal shipping advantages with Stockton, Richmond and other outlying harbors which have already been approved and are now operating as ports-of-call and so recognized by the steamship lines.

This application was heard by the district engineer of the war department and with the concurrence of the division engineer and the chief of engineers, it was recommended that the federal government appropriate $94,000, or one-half the cost of dredging, and to further provide an annual maintenance of $16,500 to fully cover the cost of maintaining the channel, the government assuming the full cost of maintenance after the completion of the harbor.

Project Wins Approval

Acting upon the recommendations of the chief of engineers, congress included the Redwood Harbor project in the River and Harbor Bill which was passed at this session of congress, so that there is now available under these two appropriations, the first of which was handled by the harbor commissioners after the creation of the district, and the second through the citizens' harbor committee prior to the creation of the district, the sum of $185,000, which is an outright gift to assist in the establishment of the first unit of harbor development in the county.

The harbor commissioners have given careful consideration to this and the responsibility placed upon them through the creation

S. F. Chamber's Manager Dies On Train Here

George Presley Found Dead in His Berth By Porter

George A. Presley, 46, executive vice president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and prominent San Francisco attorney, died suddenly on Monday on the Sunset Limited somewhere in the vicinity of Redwood City.

He was on his way to San Francisco, returning from Balboa Beach, where he had been for some time with Mrs. Presley.

Surviving him are his widow and their 10-year-old son, who is in a camp at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Presley is still in the South.

A porter made the discovery of his death when he failed to rouse Mr. Presley from sleep in his berth. Mr. Presley had been in poor health for some time, and doctors had hoped for improvement on the Balboa Beach vacation.

Mr. Presley, graduate of Stanford in 1907, was prominent in student affairs while there and became baseball and football coach in 1908, serving in the latter capacity until 1911. He was married to Florence Block of the 1912 class at Stanford.

A member of the legal firm of Thomas, Beedy, Presley and Paramore of San Francisco, he was attorney for the Stanford board of trustees. In 1930 he was a member pro tem of the board, and was formerly president of the alumni association.

For the past several years he has acted in the capacity of general manager of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Better Than Usual Sales Recorded By Stores

Business continued at a brisk pace in Redwood City today following an unprecedented buying wave over the week-end.

Orders along staple lines were being filled by food stores, although their stocks were being diminished rapidly due to the inability to bring in new supplies from warehouses closed by the strike. Prices were advanced in some lines of perishable commodities because of the necessity of shipping them here by express.

Dairies were getting adequate milk supplies and bakeries had goods on hand.

Department stores experienced heavy sales and announced ample stocks on hand to supply the needs of this trading area. Dana P. Washburn, manager of Montgomery Ward & Co., reported that all lines of stock were full and that efforts were being made to run railroad freight service between the Oakland warehouse and the Redwood City store. Pickets prevented one train from entering the Oakland store siding to load goods.

C. A. Nelson, manager of the J. C. Penney Co., reported that abnormal sales activities during a period of several days were continuing today.

An adequate supply of gasoline for Redwood City was reported by the major oil companies. The week-end rush to fill automobile tanks had subsided somewhat today. All orders were being filled.

Harper Club Will Organize in R. C.

Within a few days, definite organization of a Harper-for-Sheriff Club will take place in Redwood City, it was announced today by Harry Regan, financial-secretary of the organization sponsoring Police Chief John J. Harper's candidacy for sheriff.

Meanwhile, the central section of the county was well organized in behalf of the Harper campaign. Mrs. Frances P. Smythe, well known club woman of Burlingame, heads a women's auxiliary in Burlingame, and Mrs. D. M. Garvey and Mrs. Ernest Herbert Hills Jr., both prominent in Burlingame, are among the leaders making bids for Harper votes.

Roussel Appointed To Fire Commission

George Roussel of Belmont today was named by the board of supervisors as a commissioner of the Belmont fire district. He was recommended by the Citizens' Association for Good Government.

The appointment was made upon motion of Supervisor Rosalie Brown.

COUNTY HARBOR BONDS SET FOR AUGUST VOTE

With $185,000 of federal gifts awaiting acceptance and harbor development held to be the key to industrial development of the San Francisco peninsula, the San Mateo County Harbor Commission Tuesday night took preliminary steps toward placing a bond issue before the voters on August 28.

On that date peninsulans will be asked to vote a bond issue for approximately $450,000. The specific sum will be determined at the next meeting.

Total cost of the harbor is estimated at approximately $635,000, but would be reduced to the $450,000 figure through the $185,000 immediate federal participation. The United States has agreed to provide an annual sum of $16,500 to fully cover the cost of maintaining the channel after completion of the harbor.

The government also proposes to provide $107,000 for dredging San Bruno shoals if and when harbor development at Redwood City makes this advisable. This will bring government contributions to $292,000, plus $16,500 annual maintenance.

Commissioner Henry Beeger of Redwood City introduced the resolution adopting plans and specifications for the project as drawn by County Engineer James S. James' office and approved by the Public Works Administration.

S. A. Keyston, San Mateo member of the commission, provided the second.

Chairman Percy J. Shaw, South San Francisco member, concurred.

In a second resolution the need of submitting a bond issue to finance the harbor was declared because of the federal offers and the soundness of the project.

The commissioners declared they did not feel it within their power to reject the federal offers and decided that the public should be given an opportunity to vote upon the question this fall.

Land acquisition and dredging is expected to cost approximately $228,000 to $238,000, of which $94,000 will be contributed by the government free of charge.

Shore facilities, including wharves, warehouses, spur tracks and other port requirements, will cost approximately $403,000, $91,000 of which the government will contribute free of charge.

The federal government will require a note for the $312,000 balance to be repaid in 15 years at 4% interest. This must be secured by bonds of the district.

The sum between $312,000 (the face of the federal note), and $450,000, (the amount of the bond issue), will be used in dredging and land acquisition.

An appraisal of the land is now being made and its value will be known within the week.

San Mateo county voters at the previous election voted overwhelmingly in favor of port development.

Bandit Secures $18 in Stickup

Friend of Attendant Drops in for Chat; Robber Calm

Two Shell service stations, one in Redwood City at El Camino Real and James avenue and the other at El Camino Real and University avenue in Palo Alto, were looted within a short time of each other Tuesday night.

The local service station was roobed of $18 by a lone stick-up man, and the Palo Alto one was rifled of $31, while the attendant was out of the main building, by a burglar who may have been the same one who committed the Redwood City stick-up.

The bandit, armed with an automatic pistol, held up C. C. Stewart of 948 Elm street, San Carlos, attendant at the local station, at about 10 o'clock.

During the robbery an acquaintance of Stewart, whose name is being withheld by police, walked in, conversed with Stewart for a few moments and bought some cigarettes before leaving.

The robber during this period stood with his hands in his pockets and then resumed the hold-up afterwards.

He then left on foot after warning Steward to delay giving a call to the police, but he is believed to have had an automobile hidden somewhere nearby.

Police Officers Clyde Genochio and Joseph Roza were only a block and a half way when the alarm was given by radio and immediately covered the district but were unable to find any trace of the robber.

Only an incomplete description of the robber was obtained. He was reported to have been somewhat less than 35 years old.

W. F. Gunnerson, 228 Kellogg avenue, Palo Alto, attendant at the Shell station there, was fixing a tire at the grease rack when the burglary occurred shortly after 9 p. m. He found the $31 missing when he returned to the service station building. Gunnerson told the police that he had seen a man about 30 walking across the premises while he was at the rack but that he had noticed the passerby only casually.

Coast Protests Highway Delay

Objection Also Voiced On Gasoline Funds For Cities

Deploring further delay on the Ocean Shore highway project, the Coastside Civic Union met at Miramar last night and adopted three resolutions, two of which dealt with the coast road and the third voicing objections to "raids" by cities on county gasoline tax funds.

Delay of the Ocean Shore highway project was laid to the refusal of San Mateo county to allow San Francisco to use Mills airport at San Bruno as its garbage disposal point.

The civic union pointed out in one of the resolutions that it had endorsed the "fill and cover" plan and use of the airport, and held that it should not be penalized for the failure of the supervisors to grant the permit. This support of San Francisco's plans will be called to the attention of Supervisor Andrew Gallagher, chairman of the Ocean Shore committee.

No further delay for garbage "or any other cause" should be tolerated, the union held, declaring "San Francisco has twice solemnly promised to support the prompt construction of this important highway." These promises were made in the rejection of peninsula bridge permits which would jeopardize the San Francisco-Oakland project, and secondly when San Francisco was given a permit to build its jail at San Bruno.

The request of cities for gasoline tax funds was declared in another resolution as an "unfair drive" and the union "vigorously protested this proposed raid for the purpose of robbing the county road fund for the benefit of city streets."

Also considered "unfair" was the proposed transfer of $100,000 from the CWA allotments for use of the Coastside road to the Junipero Serra boulevard.

The supervisors were asked to see that this fund is retained for use on the coast highway.

Among those attending from Redwood City were County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman, County Assessor Daniel P. Flynn and County Engineer James S. James.

Early-Day Editor's Widow Stricken At Modesto

Mrs. Olive Bertina Davis, widow of W. L. Davis, former editor of the Redwood City Democrat from 1898 to 1903, died at her home in Modesto last week, according to word received here Saturday.

She is survived by her daughters, Grace and Irene Davis, both of Modesto, and a son, Will Davis, of Pleasanton; a brother, John S. Thompson of San Mateo, and two sisters, Mrs. George Newcomb of Santa Cruz and Mrs. Emma Racine of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Davis was a native of Racine, Wis., where she was born October 27, 1858.

Interment will take place at Cypress Lawn Cemetery at 3 o'clock Monday.

Mr. Davis acquired a half- interest in the Democrat on February 17, 1898 and on August 4, 1898 bought out his partner, W. D. Crow, and the late James V. Swift, another early-day Redwood City editor, became associated with him. Mr. Davis retired from the journalistic field on January 22, 1903, when he sold out his interest to Mr. Swift.

DATE SET FOR VOTE

BURLINGAME, July 17.—The city council last night tentatively set September 4 as the date for a vote on a proposed $86,000 bond issue for a sewer project to be constructed with the aid of PWA funds. The town of Hillsborough has agreed to pay $24,000 toward the total cost of $147,000.

City Salary Reduction Is Defeated

Proposed salary reductions affecting city employes were rejected by vote of the council Monday night after a suggestion that action be deferred for two weeks was voted down. Police and fire salaries were not at issue.

Vote of the council stood 3 to 3 on the proposal, with City Councilman Robert Jones absent.

Savings of $1,530 per year on departmental head salaries and city employe wages were proposed in one schedule while reduction of City Attorney Albert Mansfield's salary from $250 to $100 per month would have brought another $1,800 saving.

Merger of the offices of City Manager Ernest Rolison, City Engineer Charles Dimmitt and Building Inspector I. C. Drathman, defeated by separate vote, would have brought estimated savings of $7429, proponents had estimated.

The council had previously voted down a proposal that City Treasurer B. E. Myers be reduced from $225 to $175 per month.

Mansfield defended his salary of $250 per month as fair.

Councilman James Eva said that no one questioned the ability or willingness of the city attorney to work but questioned whether the amount of legal duties warranted the salary.

City Manager Rolison defended the present salary schedule as a whole, declaring the pay to be below the average for similar services. He said that if the salaries were in excess or the services inferior he would recommend reductions.

Councilman Louis Christensen believed the salaries high compared with the ability of the public to pay.

The manager replied that he did not believe public officials were responsible for the economic conditions and suggested if reductions are to be made they should not be made at the expense of a few selected employes but should include all persons whose salaries are supported by taxes.

Councilman Paul McCarthy believed the proposed departmental reductions of $1,530 would not be vital to taxpayers but would seriously affect wage earners. The $1,530 reduction would mean a saving of one and one-half cents on the $100 valuation or 75 cents yearly to the taxpayer assessed at $5,000.

Councilman Eva defended any saving as a starter toward tax reduction.

The principal savings in the departmental schedule exclusive of higher bracket reductions, were $42.50 monthly on the police judge's salary; $35 on the police chief's; $15 on the fire chief's; and $15 each on the corporation yard mechanic, park superintendent and water department superintendent.

Councilman Eva moved, Councilman Evans Fletcher seconding, that the lower scale be adopted. Councilman McCarthy offered an amendment deferring action one week awaiting the return of Councilman Jones. Councilman George McNulty offered the second. The board stood 3 to 3 and the amendment was declared lost.

On the vote lowering salaries Councilmen Eva, Fletcher and Louis Christensen voted "aye" and Mayor Charles Lambert and Councilmen McCarthy and George McNulty voted "no."

Office Merger Proposal Loses Before Board

Vote of 3-3 Recorded With One Member Absent

Merger of the offices of City Manager Ernest Rolison, City Engineer Charles Dimmitt and City Building and Health Inspector I. C. Drathman was defeated by vote of the city council Monday night.

The council stood 3 to 3 on the proposal, the older group adhering to the recommendation of the city-wide Citizens' Advisory Board that the plan be rejected. The citizens' group held that the plan would cripple the manager plan of government.

Councilman James Eva moved for the adoption of the resolution merging the offices. The motion was seconded by Councilman Evans Fletcher and supported by the third vote of Councilman Louis Christensen.

Mayor Charles Lambert and Councilmen Paul McCarthy and George McNulty voted against the plan. Councilman Robert Jones was absent on vacation.

Councilman McCarthy supported the view expressed by City Manager Rolison in a report to the council that it would be "humanly impossible" for one individual to perform the duties of the three combined offices.

Rolison declared that the manager plan could function by "subterfuge only" if the duties of the lesser offices had to be carried out by him.

Councilman McCarthy expressed an opinion that there could be no saving if assistants were to be given the manager to perform the combined duties.

Proponents of the plan suggest the appointment of a medical man to take the duties of Health Inspector Drathman, while contractors performing building and electrical work would be called upon to make city inspections for the fees in it.

The resolution proposed a salary of $300 for the combined offices of engineer and manager, with Rolison performing those duties which would not be parcelled out on the fee basis.

Rolison in his report expressed belief in the need of a full-time engineer to handle the city business and the management of the water utility. He said Redwood City was a $13,000,000 corporation doing business in excess of $270,000 per year.

Edward Stack Seeks Return As Controller

The office of controller, which the charter now prescribes to replace the office of auditor, is practically the same in substance. The duties and responsibilities remain the same with charter provisions calculated to give more financial control than was set out under the general laws.

This office stands out as the most important in your county financial system, and demands experience and faithful and fearless service on the part of the one in charge.

The controller is your county accountant, through whom every item of revenue and expenditure must pass and be perfectly accounted for. He has under his control the keeping of all accounts for the county, elementary schools, high schools, mosquito, lighting, fire, water, public utility and every other district where the revenues are derived through taxes or assessments.

It is his duty annually to submit a tentative budget to the board of supervisors, and after its acceptance, define the necessary tax rate to obtain the revenue for the needs of the entire county and subsidiary districts.

His other duties are too numerous to mention. All in all it exacts careful and accurate handling of every problem and that is where experience predominates.

Mr. Stack has the experience over a period of 20 years. He knows every detail of the office, has been courteous and helpful to the public and now seeks re-election upon his record.

He believes that at this time especially, with the changes affected by the charter, a man who is fully conversant with the new demands and has the past experience of the office, is needed.

PARKING LIMITS SET

Two ordinances regulating parking on Perry street were adopted by the council last night. One prohibits parking on the northeasterly (depot) side and the other fixes an hour limit on the other half of the street.

Wealth & Health

Wealth can be easily spent by anyone. HEALTH—that robust vigorous health is not easy to obtain throughout life by any individual. Wealth and mere money can be obtained while you are enjoying your best of HEALTH. If you have wealth and neglect HEALTH—mere money is a secondary consideration. Without HEALTH, money has little value.

The most profitable investment you can make is the money invested in HEALTH and the greatest opportunity to make money is to have HEALTH.

HEALTH is the greatest thing in life, wherever you go, you will find it is the healthy people who are the real successes and the ones who are enjoying the pleasures and the good things life offers.

If you are given the opportunity to choose between wealth and HEALTH, common sense will tell you to choose HEALTH first. If your HEALTH is not on the par or you find indications of abnormal conditions, take immediate action to remove the cause of those conditions. Don't delay—delays are expensive and dangerous.

Call today immediately at our office and give the herbs a trial and find out for yourself the splendid result you will obtain by the use of our herb treatment.

Backache and Kidney Trouble Relieved

May 8th, 1934.

Chan & Kong Herb Co.
Redwood City, Calif.
To Whom It May Concern:

I am 64 years of age. For quite a while I suffered with kidney trouble and backache. In the last few months it hurt me so bad I had to quite working. Recently I heard so much about Chan & Kong Chinese herb treatment that I gave them a trial. It really surprised me; after taking the herb tea only two days the pains in my back left me entirely. Altogether I took about two weeks' treatment. They surely put me on my feet. I feel well now, and able to go back to work again. I am glad to recommend their herbs to any one who seeks to regain their health, and with much pleasure to give all information to anyone who wants to know more about Chan & Kong's herbs.

Yours truly,

High Blood Pressure Overcome

Redwood City, Cal., May 29, 1934.

To Whom It May Concern:

I can recommend Chan & Kong to anyone afflicted with high blood pressure. I was stricken so that I could not do any kind of work. After trying nearly every other known remedy for this disease I continued to become weaker and could hardly walk. My blood pressure still remained much too high. I decided to try the Chinese herb remedies and after seven weeks' treatment my blood pressure is down to normal and I have regained my complete strength and health. I am again back at my work and feeling fine. This was accomplished without putting me on a starvation diet.

ANNOUNCING!

A WONDERFUL NEW SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE OF SAN MATEO COUNTY AND COMMUNITY WHO ARE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE REDWOOD CITY TRIBUNE

A LIMITED $10,000.000 TRAVEL AND PEDESTRIAN ACCIDENT INSURANCE POLICY

10c PAYABLE PER MONTH

To every thinking person—travel and pedestrian accident insurance is not only desirable, but necessary. Statistics, carefully compiled, by the National Safety Council prove that approximately 35,000 persons are killed and ONE MILLION injured, each year, in automobile accidents alone. Add to these the many classes of accidents illustrated on this page and it is bewildering to understand why such appalling hazards go unheeded—by persons who are subject to such eminent danger, every day.

In offering the North American Travel Accident Policy to the public as protection against these various types of accidents, we have kept three factors constantly in mind: (1) The rapid increase of such accidents and the need for protection against them—(2) The tragedy such accidents bring, especially to those who are unprotected, leaving innocent families to suffer—(3) The fact that the home and its protection have a direct bearing on the relationship between this newspaper and the public which it serves.

This policy brings protection to you and your loved ones when you most need it—and pays you money when this need is most urgent—for loss of life, limb, sight or time, caused by any of the accidents as outlined in the policy. Its coverage in greater detail is shown in the panel at the left. Note the liberal sums paid. Read carefully. It vitally concerns you and your family.

If we could personally urge you to obtain one of these policies without delay, we would do so—The best we can do is to print our appeal and to remind every responsible family head that he cannot afford to leave his earning power and family to merciless chance—when less than 1-3 cent per day will provide the protection afforded by one of these policies paying you or your family money when the need is most urgent.

Don't let us urge you to do your duty—toward your loved ones. Do it for their sake and your peace of mind. FILL IN AND MAIL COUPON!

Merriam Proves Courageous

Acting Governor Frank M. Merriam is certain of election. His fearless and courageous action in the strike situation has assured his retention. Merriam did not sidestep the issue.

It was put squarely up to him and he promptly and vigorously acted to restore order and peace in the strike-stricken city. He brought order out of chaos and was fair to both sides of the controversy.

In his broadcast from Sacramento on Monday evening last he said: "Without unnecessary gestures or explanations, I propose to meet the crisis which the people have been called upon to face.

"Every branch of the law enforcement machinery of the state has been called to co-operate with me in carrying out my duty. A workable system has been developed in which farm supplies and other foodstuffs shall be moved under guard into the strike area.

"Proper protection will be afforded those engaged in distributing these necessaries to the people. It goes without saying that only those who undertake by violence or attempts at intimidation to interrupt this essention service will stand in danger of arrest or injury.

"It might as well be clearly understood now, however, that I propose to maintain order and to enforce the law. Force will be used only where the authority of government is challenged and where fully justified.

"I call upon all good citizens, regardless of their individual interests or sympathies, to aid me in serving the state and the people of California at this time.

"Let us be temperate in speech and in action; but above all let us be true to the standards and traditions of an Americanism that counts no cost too great for the protection of the principles and ideals which have governed our people for more than a century and a half.

"With good will, strong hearts, and balanced judgment, this present crisis will be brought to a quick and satisfactory conclusion. I ask your active and moral support."

What Cows Wear In Antarctic to Be Radio Topic

What the well-dressed cow is wearing at the South Pole will be told KPO listeners at 10 a. m. Monday. C. W. Robinson, who will be interviewed by Joan Andrews on the Menu Flash program, is western representative of the American Guernsey Cattle Club, and in this capacity receives radio news relative to the three Guernsey cows taken with the Byrd Expedition to the Antarctic.

The three cows, and a bull calf born on shipboard, survived equatorial heat, then were fitted with tailored coats and hats on arrival at Little America, but now have grown their own coats of shaggy, thick hair, according to Robinson.

Delinquent Tax To Be Paid Up

$10,000 in Back Taxes Due From Realtors At San Carlos

SAN CARLOS, July 14.—The City of San Carlos and the Sierra Realty Company today had reached an agreement for the payment of $10,000 in back taxes to the municipality.

Under the agreement, the city will waive penalties previous to 1932. The company will pay the $10,000 in monthly installments of $1000 per month. The first payment will release delniquent taxes on 25 lots.

The council voted to instruct City Attorney Albert S. Mansfield to draw up the necessary agreement which will be presented at the next meeting. The city attorney was absent. D. V. Reeves was spokesman for the realty company.

Councilman Merritt R. Hosmer informed the board that the city was the recipient of an American flag which is flying on the flagstaff in front of the city hall. Mrs. A. C. Butts of San Francisco, mother-in-law of Chief of Police Edward J. Wheeler, was the donor. Councilman Hosmer moved that a letter of thanks be sent to Mrs. Butts for her donation.

Offers Park Tract

Carl Yearing, realtor with offices in San Carlos, offered the board a 10-acre tract for recreational purposes located in the Devonshire district. He quoted a price of $1000 per acre. The letter was ordered referred to the city planning commission.

Police Commissioner John B. Bryan presented the yearly report of the fire and police departments. He explained that the firemen had put in a total of 168 hours of active service and moved that a warrant of $84 be ordered drawn in favor of the department.

Mayor Asa Hull appointed Hugh McDonald to represent San Carlos in efforts to secure the widening of El Camino Real.

City Clerk Lillian A. Lynch was authorized to renew the insurance policy on the new police car.

Councilman Hosmer was appointed to represent the city at various meetings called by the League of Municipalities and other organizations.

Olin F. Nuckolls Tells His Aims In Seeking Post

Olin F. Nuckolls

Olin F. Nuckolls, 1101 Chula Vista avenue, Burlingame, candidate for district attorney, has engaged in the practice of law since June, 1919, and has resided in San Mateo county for the past 11 years.

He was born in Mendocino county, of pioneer parentage. Nuckolls engaged in ranching, stock raising and other business enterprises for several years upon his graduation from high school. He then studied law in San Francisco.

In 1922, he and his wife moved into San Mateo county.

Because of both business experience and legal training, Nuckolls considers himself especially qualified to represent the people of San Mateo county as their district attorney, and promises, if elected, "to give a clean, honest, courteous and able administration."

Eight Youths Saved From Capsized Boat

BURLINGAME, July 16.—Eight peninsula and San Francisco youths saved themselves from drowning in the bay near here when they swam to shore from their capsized sailing craft.

The boys were a mile off Pacific City beach here when they attempted to hoist sail on their 20-foot boat in a stiff breeze. The craft heeled over and capsized.

Twin brothers, Bill and Henry Jackson, 22, of San Francisco, became separated after they were thrown into the water and swam around looking for each other, but they later rejoined each other. The others imperiled were Ted Muscio, 22; George Forrest, 23; Charles and William Loudon and Jack Welch, all of San Mateo; and Frank Brown of Burlingame.

Members of both the county planning and recreational commissions appeared before the supervisors and explained the desirability of making beach purchases, which are provided for under the county planning ordinance.

Menlo Park

Menlo Park Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West gave a reception last Thursday night in honor of Rev. Father Thomas McKeon. W. H. Weeden acted as toastmaster and called on all present to make speeches of welcome. Delightful refreshments were served by a committee committee composed of Native Sons and Daughters. Isabelle Weeden Lindquist, accompaning herself on the piano, sang several old favorites.

Mrs. Leon French, president of Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary No. 443, entertained the following guests at a barbecue dinner at her home in Palo Alto Tuesday night following a special meeting of the auxiliary: Mesdames Carol Devol, Irene Boone, F. Lyon, B. Larrecou, L. Ross, C. O'Neil, Isabelle Lindquist, and the Misses Clarissa Ross, M. Ross, Barbara Blanchard and Emma Noel. Mrs. French's mother, Mrs. M. Green, and her husband, Major Leon French, assisted in entertaining the guests.

A district meeting of American Legion auxiliaries is scheduled to be held in War Memorial Building Monday night. Beach, returned to her home on Hoover avenue from Community Hospital where she has been confined for the past two weeks recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

The following marriages license was issued on Monday at Redwood City: Frederick H. Wilson, 21, and Fern M. McCrea, 19, both of Menlo Park.

While many of their husbands were away at the Bohemian Grove the wives and daughters and younger sons were up early Sunday morning and off on the bridle trails that lead from the Menlo Circus Club to the barbecue place in the hills, where breakfast was enjoyed. Afterward the morning was spent at bridge, and pitching horseshoes, before the backward trek to the club, where the plunge was an inviting pastime for the early afternoon.

The card party previously planned by the Mothers' Club of St. Joseph's School at Menlo Park for next Wednesday has been indefinitely postponed.

A "Merriam-for-Governor club" is to be organized shortly in Menlo Park. The governor has a large following of admirers here who are anxious to support his candidacy. A meeting will be held next week to perfect an organization. The businessmen and labor organizations are to join the club which promises to be quite active in the campaign.

Miss Carmel O'Keefe spent the week-end at Walnut Grove as the guest of Miss Ruth Rugaard. She enjoyed a yachting trip down the Sacramento river on Sunday.

Hartley Russell, candidate for the position of Board of Equalization from this district, deserves well at the hands of the voter of the district. He comes from an old pioneer family. His father was raised here and attended the grammar school, going to San Francisco at an early age and becoming identified with the fire department of that city. Young Russell has a large following in the district and will be elected.
